Tadeusz Bujnicki – Historian of literature, Professor Emeritus at the Jagiellonian University of Cracow, editor and co-editor of numerous volumes, e.g. The Last Citizens of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania (Lublin 2005, co-edited with K. Stępnik) and Henryk Sienkiewicz in School, Library and Museum (Warsaw 2015, co-edited with J. Majchrzyk). He has recently published Sienkiewicz’s Novels About Old Times. Studies (Cracow 1996), and Borderlands and Beyond. Studies (Bialystok 2014).

Andrea F. De Carlo – Professor at Chair in East European Studies, Università degli Studi di Napoli “L’Orientale”, Facoltà di Lettre e Filosofia (Italy), Head of Polish Studies, translator. His research interests include mainly philosophical and literary problems. He has published Black Light. Ryszard Kapuściński’s and Piero Paolo’s Pasolini’s Africa (2013).

Tetiana Czuża – Assistant Professor (PhD) in Chair in Polish Studies, in the Institute of Philology, the Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv. She specializes in literary studies and translates from Polish.

Krzysztof Ćwikliński – Professor (PhD, DLitt) at the University of Technology and Humanities in Radom, historian of literature, literary critic, and poet. He co-founded Art and Literary Review and co-edited Ways of Looking at Andrzej Bobkowski: The Centenary of His Birthday (2014, co-edited with A. Kowalczyk and M. Urbanowski).

Maciej Gloger – Professor (PhD, DLitt) at the Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz. He has published Bolesław Prus and Dilemas of the Positivistic Mindset (2007), Modern Sienkiewicz (2010) and numerous articles on the works of Bolesław Prus, Eliza Orzeszkowa, Joseph Conrad and Stanisław Brzozowski. His research interests include Polish-Czech cultural relations since 1939 and modern forms of national identity.

Anna Gogiel-Kuźmicka – Holds degrees in Scholarly Information, Library Studies and Russian Studies at the University of Białystok. She is a custodian in the Department of Białystok University of Technology’s Library. She has published Forms of Collaboration Between University Libraries: the Case of Białystok University of Technology (2014).
Anna Janicka – Assistant Professor (PhD, DLitt) in the Research Unit for the Literature of Positivism and the Young Poland Movement, in the Institute of Polish Studies, the University of Białystok. She has edited and co-edited numerous volumes, e. g. Kraszewski and Modernity. Studies (Białystok 2015) and Polish Positivists and Their “Fringes” (Białystok 2015) and published her own monograph studies: Zapolska’s Affair: Scandals and Polemics (Białystok 2013) and Tradition and Change (Białystok 2015).

Agnieszka Jurkowska – Holds a degree (MA) from the Department of History and History of Art, the Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw. She has been in charge of catalogues in the Department of the Documents of Social Life in the National Library in Warsaw. Her academic interests include art history and archaeology.

Anna Kołbuk – Holds a degree in Polish and English studies and is a graduate from the PhD program at the John Paul II Catholic University in Lublin. She has co-authored Everyday Life at the Uniate Church Parish on the Bug River Lands in the 18th and 19th Centuries (2015) and published her own study The Representation of Russian Orthodox Church in ‘Bishop Szumborski’s Journal of His Travel to Petersburg in 1840’ (2014).

Aleksandra Kołodziejczak – PhD student in Chair in Philological Studies “East – West”, the University of Białystok. She has published articles on Fyodor Dostoyevsky and Włodzimierz Mieszczerski.

Dariusz Kulesza – Professor (PhD, DLitt) and Head of the Research Unit in the Interwar and Contemporary Literature, the Institute of Polish Studies, the University of Białystok. He has co-authored Dictionary of Polish Poets (Białystok 1997) and published Tragedy of Crucifixion (Brandstætter’s and Zawieyski’s Christian Dramas) (Białystok 1999) and In Search for the Essence of Things. Studies and Portraits (Bialystok 2015). He has co-edited the volume Tradition and the Future of Genealogy (Bialystok 2013). His research interests include the literary cycle and religious literature.

Artur Konopacki – Assistant Professor (PhD) at the Faculty of Pedagogy and Psychology, the University of Białystok. He co-edited Aesthetic Aspects of Polish, Belarusian and Lithuanian Tatars’ Literature (from the 16th to 21st Century) (with G. Czerwiński, Białystok 2015) and published Muslims in the Lands of Poland (Białystok 2006) and The Religious Life of Tatars in the Grand Duchy of Lithuania from the 16th to the 19th Century (Warsaw 2010).

Jarosław Ławski – Professor (PhD, DLitt), founder of Chair in Philological Studies “East – West”, the University of Białystok, editor-at-large of the Scholarly Series “Dark Romanticism”, “Watersheds/Borderlands” and “Colloquia Orientalia Bialostocensia”, and member of the Polish Academy of Sciences. He has published Mickiewicz – Myth – History (Białystok 2010) and Milosz: ‘Chronicles’ of Being (Białystok 2014).

Barbara Noworolska – PhD, head and co-founder of the “Sienkiewicz Society in Podlasie”. She has published Eliza Orzeszkowa. Existence, Memory, History (Białystok 2005), edited Anna Markowa’s Maturing Towards Tomorrow (Białystok 1985) and Łukasz Górnicki and His Times (co-edited with Wiesław Stec, Białystok 1993). Her research interests include the culture and literature of the 19th century.

Swietłana Olijnik (Світлана Олійник) – Assistant Professor in Chair in Ukrainian Literature and Comparative Studies, the Institute of Philology, the Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University. Her research interests include contemporary Ukrainian literature and comparative studies in Slavic literatures. She is editor of the scholarly journal Synopsys.

Katarzyna Sokołowska – Assistant Professor in the Research Unit in the Interwar and Contemporary Literature, in the Institute of Polish Studies, the University of Białystok. Her research interests include Holocaust literature and the literary cycle. She has co-edited The Literary Cycle in Poland (2001), The Cycle and the Novel (2004) and published ‘And Today I Am a Spectator’ Narratives of Holocaust Children (2010).

Barbara Sokołowska-Hurnowicz – Senior custodian. She holds a degree in Polish Studies from the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań. She has been working in the Henryk Sienkiewicz Museum of Literature in Poznań since 1990. She has published numerous articles on the life and works of Sienkiewicz.

Anna Surzyńska-Błaszak – Senior custodian. She holds a degree in ethnology from the Faculty of Philosophy and History, the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań. She has been working in the Henryk Sienkiewicz Museum of Literature in Poznań since 1983. In 1993 she became head of the institution. She has prepared over 100 exhibitions dedicated to Sienkiewicz and published numerous articles on his life and works.

Irena Szewczenko – Student at the Faculty of Editorship and Polygraphy, the National Technical University of Ukraine, and translator of scholarly literature and fiction. Her research interests include Polish studies, symbolism and intercultural communication. She has published over 10 articles.

Jolanta Sztachelska – Professor (PhD, DLitt), Head of the Research Unit for the Literature of Positivism and the Young Poland Movement, in the Institute of Polish Studies, the University of Białystok. She has published numerous articles, essays and books, e.g. ‘Reporteryje’ and Reportages. The Documentary Traditions if Polish Prose at the Turn of the 19th and 20th Centuries (Prus, Konopnicka, Dygasiński, Reymont) (Białystok 1997) and Killing the Classics. Studies and Essays (Białystok 2015).

Katarzyna Szymborska – PhD student in the Research Unit for the Literature of Positivism and the Young Poland Movement, the Institute of Polish Studies, the University of Białystok. Her research interests include children studies. She has co-edited Children Studies as an Interpretive Perspective. Studies and Sketches (with J. Sztachelska, Białystok 2014) and published articles on the above mentioned problems.

Milena Trzaska – Holds a degree in Polish Studies from the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn, where she defended her thesis The Crime Stories of Maciej Słomczyński (Joe Alex). She is a PhD student in the Faculty of Philology, the University of Białystok, preparing a book on social roles of Zbigniew Herbert.